Eshita Banerjee
March 6, 2020

For assignment 6A, I implemented the counter next to the cart which changed based off of the number of items added to the cart. Additionally, on the products page, the total price changes based off of the quantity of the purchase the customer wants.

I wanted the cart page to be simple and intuitive. There will be a list of items added to the cart on the left side and the right grid will have pricing. This way the important information is available without a scroll.

Low-Fidelity Prototype:

High-Fidelity Prototype: